

Daily Tracker - CTSE 2026

How to use this: tick the boxes as you go, and fill in the log line at the end of each day. The log line matters more than the ticks - writing down your weakest topic each day is what tells you where revision time should go later.

If you fall behind, do not try to catch up. Skip to today's scheduled work and carry on. An 80%-completed plan beats an abandoned one.

After it's over

Write down, while it is fresh, what actually came up in each paper. If any of these posts go to a second stage - interview or skill test - that record is the most useful thing you will have.
